LEAVENWORTH PRISON IS BEING REMODELLED

ALL DEPARTMENTS WILL BE GROUPED UNDER ONE ROOF

Old Buildings, Relics of Civil War Days, to Be Razed—New Ones to Be Built By Prisoners

(By United Press.)

LEAVENWORTH, Kansas, Nov. 22.—A new disciplinary barracks rebuilt by prison labor, forms an eight million dollar project for Leavenworth. Plans for it have been approved by the War Department and construction is now under way. With the single exception of the cellhouse, every building comprising the present barracks will be razed.

Grouping all departments of the institution under one roof, the single building to be erected in sections by prison labor, involves a scheme of building to be stretched over a period of six or eight years. On account of fluctuating number of prisoners available, however, no accurate estimate can be made of the date of completion. At present inmates of the barracks number about 1,800.

The United States disciplinary barracks is almost an institution of Civil War days. Some of the present buildings were erected between 1865 and 1877. Other additions were made as required when new branches necessitated a broadening out of the institution buildings.

The new structure will have a maximum frontage of 668 feet, a maximum depth of 386 feet and will be seven stories in height at the peak. With the exception of steel, materials of construction—concrete, stone, brick, etc., will be made within the barracks.

A farm colony, stone quarry, machine shops, clothing shops and factories—additions made since establishment of the barracks—are to be housed in new buildings. Administration offices, guard quarters, hospital, store rooms, factories and machine shops also will find a place under the same roof.

Architectural plans call for a distinctive plainness. Inner courts are to be so arranged, however, so that every room will have windows on the outside or on a court. A sufficient portion of the new building will be erected to house one department, before the present building used by that department is torn down.

The United States disciplinary barracks is a separate institution from the Federal prison located here.

Major Williams Blanchard, as construction quartermaster of the barracks is in direct charge of the construction work. Preliminary plans were launched under the administration of Col. Sedgwick E. Rice, former commandant. They are being forwarded by Major Gen. J. H. McRae, present commandant of the barracks.

The disciplinary barracks at Fort Leavenworth is by far the largest of three federal military prisons. It outranks the prison located on Governor's Island, New York, and that at Alcatraz, California.

RUNNING TWO SECTIONS

East Coast Finds Traffic Beginning Early This Year

Starting today, train No. 85, from Jacksonville, southbound, operates in two sections. The first section consists of mail and baggage cars and coaches. The second section is composed of dining car and all of the Pullman cars operated on this train. So rapidly has the volume of traffic increased that it was deemed expedient to divide 85 into two sections. This arrangement practically adds another train to the service and will add accommodations enabling belated travelers to make their train, which they could not do otherwise. Day coach passengers will travel on the first section and Pullman passengers on the second.

CHARLIE RAY IN "THE GIRL DODGER"

CUTHBERT TROTMAN had been saturated with the idea that the Devil's Domain was paved with Chorus girls. Therefore Cuthbert Trotman, in the vernacular of Broadway, was a "dead one." But when Cuthbert laid his tortoise-rimmed "mirrors of the soul" on "Pinkie" LaRue—Oh, Death! Where is thy sting! Avoid the usual Charlie Ray rush by coming early.

Beauty With Ability

Have you ever thought of what that means.

Purchase and use of a Buick demonstrate the fact that Buick cars are as good as Buick advertising say they are, and further, that all of the attributes mentioned have a real place in motoring service.

For example, beauty is of no service in a mud hole. You need power. On the other hand, power may be entirely secondary on a social occasion where appearance is quite essential.

Buick owners find this happy combination in Buick cars, and needless to say, it is a big point in the overwhelming demand for new Buicks.

And let us show you.

The way, we will be able to make a few deliveries this month owing to being lucky enough to secure an extra allotment of new cars from the factory.
